A University Community Garden:
A way to promote environmental advocacy

Presented by Anne Marie Noll
KIPOS aims to change the way Whitworth sees the intersection between food, the environment, and social justice.

We educate on and promote gardening, composting, thoughtful consumption, reduction of waste, and general life-long sustainability.